

My Education

I have looked ahead and a lot of times college comes to mind. I want to go to college without a huge loan. I want to get a high education and succeed in my classes. I want to find a job that will make my parents proud and having a high education with it.

I am applying for this contest or scholarship because I don't want a huge loan because of going to college. If I got any placing in this contest it would be a huge help to pay for college. I also don't want my parents to pay tons of money for me to go to college. Overall not having a huge loan for college would be really awesome!

I want to get a high education and succeed in my classes. For me not having a huge loan or at least to minimize it that could help me focus on my education. Having a high education is very important to me. To have a high education will help me succeed in a job I choose. Most importantly, having a high education will help me be successful in the job I choose.

I want to find a job that will make my parents proud. Teaching has been through my mind a couple times. If I were to be a teacher I would really want a high education so that I would be able to teach them the very best I could. I have also thought about being an interior designer. Most of all, having a high education would give me extreme help with the job I choose.

To sum it up, I enter this contest so my loans can be smaller. I want a high education to be successful with my job. I hope to find an amazing job that I enjoy. I'm also excited to figure out what job I choose to go to college for. Overall, winning this contest will help me with college and paying for it if I win one of the prizes.
